Re: 2019 Medicare Advantage Actuarial Equivalence Test Results

Dear Sharon:

As you requested, Leif Associates has completed an analysis of the 2019 Medicare Advantage products available in Washington and their equivalence to traditional Medicare combined with a Medicare Supplement Plan F. The purpose of this letter is to document our findings.

Background

The Washington State Health Insurance Pool (WSHIP) eligibility requirements state that Medicare-eligible individuals who do not have access to a reasonable choice of comprehensive Medicare Part C (Medicare Advantage) plans are eligible for coverage through WSHIP.

“Reasonable choice” is defined in RCW 48.41.100 (1)(c) as having a choice of health maintenance organization (HMO) or preferred provider organization (PPO) Medicare Part C plans offered by at least three different carriers that have had provider networks in the person’s county of residence for at least five years. In addition, the plan options must include coverage at least as comprehensive as a Plan F Medicare Supplement Plan combined with Medicare Parts A and B. The plan options must also provide access to adequate and stable provider networks that make up-to-date provider directories easily accessible on the carrier’s web site and in hard copy, if requested. Finally, if no HMO or PPO includes the health care provider with whom the individual has an established relationship and from whom the individual has received treatment within the past 12 months, the individual does not have reasonable choice.

2019 Medicare Advantage Carriers

The CMS website Medicare.gov provides information about all Medicare Advantage plans available in each zip code. We accessed this website and identified the carriers offering 2019 Medicare Advantage plans in each of the counties in Washington. We noted a significant amount of change in the mix of carriers, as follows:

- Three carriers left the market or were acquired: Allwell Medicare HMO, Molina Medicare HMO, and Soundpath Health HMO. No new carriers entered the market.
- Eight Medicare Advantage carriers expanded their service areas for 2019, providing additional choices in seventeen counties. Because they have not offered coverage in those counties in prior years, we have not considered them in the count of qualified carriers in the expansion counties under the definition of reasonable choice.
- One carrier reduced its service area for 2019.

Eighteen carriers are offering HMO or PPO Medicare Advantage plans in Washington for 2019, three less than in 2018. Each carrier offers plans in a limited number of counties and 27 counties have at least one carrier. Only 7 counties have 3 or more carriers that have been in the market for at least five years. This is the same result as in 2018.

The table below lists the 15 counties with at least three Medicare Advantage carriers for 2019, along with the number of qualifying carriers (meaning they have been offering coverage in that county for at least five years) and an indication if reasonable choice is available in the county.

County	Total Carriers	Qualifying Carriers	Reasonable Choice
Clark	11	9	Yes
Cowlitz	5	4	Yes
Island	3	2	No
King	12	8	Yes
Kitsap	9	2	No
Lewis	5	1	No
Mason	3	0	No
Pierce	12	5	Yes
Skagit	7	0	No
Snohomish	12	7	Yes
Spokane	11	6	Yes
Thurston	10	4	Yes
Walla Walla	3	2	No
Whatcom	6	1	No
Yakima	4	2	No

The count of Medicare Advantage carriers in the remaining 24 counties is as follows:

- Five have two carriers
- Seven have one carrier
- Twelve have no carriers

Actuarial Equivalence Testing

For each of the counties identified as having reasonable choice, we tested the available plans to make sure there were at least three that offered coverage at least as comprehensive as a Plan F Medicare Supplement plan combined with Medicare parts A and B, as is required by RCW 48.41.100. To limit the number of plans evaluated, we first reviewed the plans with the lowest out-of-pocket maximums, as we assumed these would be the most generous plans. We summarized each of the selected plan designs for each carrier, using a consistent format that provided the key benefit information needed to conduct an actuarial equivalence test of benefits.

Actuarial equivalence is a general term used for applying a measurement of value to two benefit plans to see how the resulting plan values compare to each other. Using a consistent set of utilization, cost, and demographic assumptions, the cost to the insurer is calculated under the different plan designs, taking into consideration the amount of cost sharing required of the enrollee. The cost to the insurer is used as an estimate of plan value for each plan design.

For this actuarial equivalence exercise, we first created a standard set of utilization and unit cost assumptions for all components of health care cost for a Medicare-eligible population. We used a proprietary Leif Associates database of claims for Medicare-eligible individuals. Claims were projected to calendar year 2019 using a 10% annual trend assumption. We used the database to first calculate the value of traditional Medicare combined with a Medicare Supplement Plan F. We then calculated the value of each of the Medicare Advantage plans and compared that value to the Medicare plus Plan F value to determine which plans were at least as generous. In counties where the initial testing demonstrated that there were three qualifying plans, we did not test all plans.

The actuarial equivalence test demonstrates that all 7 counties with at least 3 qualifying carriers offer coverage at least as comprehensive as Plan F combined with Medicare Parts A and B. The table below shows the counties that qualify as having reasonable choice, along with information about the carriers and plans that meet the actuarial equivalence benchmark.

County		Plan #1	Plan #2	Plan #3
Clark	Carrier Plan Value	Providence HMO Medicare Extra + Rx 108% of benchmark	AARP HMO Medicare Complete Plan 1 107% of benchmark	Kaiser Permanente Senior Advantage HMO 108% of benchmark
